City Releases Draft Comprehensive Plan

The "Destination Burlington" Comprehensive Plan will guide Burlington's Development over the next two decades

BURLINGTON, NC— The City of Burlington is ready for a fresh vision of the future and after months of soliciting public input and guidance, the first draft of the Destination Burlington comprehensive land use plan has been published. This plan will guide the City's development into 2035.

The City of Burlington and consultants, RATIO Architecture, invite the community to review the draft Destination Burlington comprehensive plan and provide feedback regarding the plan's content. The plan and a comment card for feedback submittal are both available on the web at www.BurlingtonNC.gov/DestinationBurlington.

An Open House regarding the draft Destination Burlington comprehensive plan will be held on Tuesday, December 9th, floating from 6:00 – 8:30pm at the Kernodle Senior Center, located at 1535 South Mebane Street in Burlington. This event is open to the public to submit comments or ask questions regarding the plan.

For more information regarding the Destination Burlington plan or the draft plan review Open House, contact David Beal, Assistant Director of Planning, at (336) 513-5417 or dbeal@ci.burlington.nc.us.
