City to Dedicate 6th Fire Station with Hose Uncoupling

BURLINGTON, NC— The City of Burlington proudly announces the official dedication of its 6th fire station, located at 3644 Bonnar Bridge Parkway, at 10:00am on Thursday, October 6.

The Station will officially be dedicated with a fire hose uncoupling. Senior Deputy Insurance Commissioner Rick McIntyre will offer the keynote speech. Additional remarks will be offered by Fire Chief Jay Smith and members of the Burlington City Council.

Following the ceremony, Fire Station No. 6 will host an open house until 12:00pm. Guided and self-guided tours will be available as well as light refreshments. The Burlington Fire Department is proud to have the Alamance County September 11th Memorial on display in the lobby during the event. The memorial was created by Casey Lewis of Beechwood Metalworks, who will be available to share information about the memorial and to field questions during the open house.

“We are excited to invite the community to help us celebrate the dedication of Burlington’s 6th Fire Station,” says Fire Chief Jay Smith. “This station will improve fire service the entire city and we are grateful to past and present City Councils for their efforts to expand fire service here in Burlington.”

Parking for the event will be available at Highland Elementary School. Shuttle service will be available to and from the Fire Station. Parking for those with mobility challenges will be available at Fire Station No. 6.
