Summary

City Council is asked to consider making appointments to City Boards and Commissions. This is an annual exercise to ensure boards/commissions have active member serving current terms.

Background

City Council annually makes appointments and reappointments to City Boards and Commissions as prescribed in the City Code of Ordinances to ensure that advisory and quasi-judicial boards/commissions are able to do business with members serving current terms. Terms expire on June 30 and new terms will begin on July 1 and are generally three years in length unless otherwise specified.
